

2/13/06

TOSSUPS – FINALS

TRASHMASTERS 2000 – UT-CHATTANOOGA

Questions by Tiresias with occasional Victorians

1) Temple head coach John Chaney briefly in 1955. Henry Kissinger in 1976, if only an honorary one. Bob Gibson from 1957-58. Nate "Sweetwater" Clifton, the first black player in the NBA, in the late 1940s. Connie Hawkins for four seasons in the 1960s. Magic Johnson, for one game in 1997. Wilt Chamberlain in 1959. And, of course, Meadowlark Lemon from 1954-1975. For 10 points, name the team all these men played for, founded in 1927 by Abe Saperstein, perhaps the greatest basketball team of all time.

Answer: Harlem Globetrotters

(RN: Stop and think about that for a minute: Henry Kissinger, a Harlem Globetrotter.)

2) You might remember her as Leanne in two 1998 episodes of Beverly Hills 90210. A few years earlier, she might have caught your eye as Maya Graham in the TV series Flipper or as Maria in an episode entitled "Sexual Perversity in Chicago Hope." There have been a couple of memorable movie roles: Kirsten Liosis in Never Been Kissed and Molly in Idle Hands. But she's probably stuck in your head now as Sara Rutherford, aka Max Guevara. For 10 points, name this actress, the titular heroine of James Cameron's Dark Angel.

Answer: Jessica Alba

3) Their greatest hits CD Volare hit stores this year, and featured their versions of "Hotel California" and "My Way". Hailing from Arles & Montpellier in the south of France, the lead singer's father was flamenco great Jose Reyes, and they claim to be the biggest selling French act ever in the United States, starting with their 13 million seller self-titled debut album in 1987. International renown has followed, a fact highlighted by their song "Oh Eh Oh Eh" for the 1998 World Cup. For 10 points, name this band, whose biggest hits to date include "Djobi Djoba", "Bem, Bem, Maria", and "Bamboleo".

Answer: Gipsy Kings

4) Molly is a nine-year old girl with glasses and braids who starts a Victory Garden during World War II. Kit, a blond-haired, blue-eyed girl, comes from a wealthy family who is having a hard time dealing with the great depression. The only minorities are Addy, who is black, and Josefina, who is a Chicana. The world is rounded out by Felicity, Kirsten, and Samantha. All live during pivotal times in U.S. History and each has a bevy of friends and family. FTP, name this series of dolls and books that teach little girls today about American History and daily life.

A: AMERICAN GIRLS

5) When you go to this town, you'll want to check out the brand new Veterans Memorial Museum, complete with Adolf Hitler's dog tags from WWI and a wall with the names of 406,000 soldiers who died during WWII. Of course, you'll have to squeeze in time, between catching the Andy Williams Christmas Show at Moon River Theatre and the Tony Orlando Show at the Osmond Family Theatre. For 10 points, identify this resort city, brainchild of Boxcar Willie, located in the southwest corner of Missouri.

Answer: Branson

6) Born John Waldo in Nebraska in 1950, he joined a band called Radar Men from Uranus in 1972, changing their name in the process. After that band broke up, he released some solo material, notably the albums Read My Lips and Don't Be Scared by These Hands, as well as beginning an acting career that would have been better served if it had never begun – witness his typecast performance as "80s Rock Singer" in Xanadu. For 10 points, name this man, lead singer on such albums as Remote Control and The Completion Backwards Principle for The Tubes.

Answer: Fee Waybill

7) Two were drafted in 1969; one from Arkansas AM&N in the 10th round, another in the 1st round from North Texas State. The other two arrived in 1971, a 4th round pick from East Texas State and a 8th round pick from Texas Southern. Together, they would catapult their team to defensive excellence, shutting down the run in front of linebackers like Jack Ham & Jack Lambert, and DB's like Mel Blount. For 10 points, give the collective name for this group of Pittsburgh defensive lineman, including Ernie Holmes, Dwight White, LC Greenwood, and Mean Joe Greene.

Answer: Steel Curtain

8) The Dark One has broken the four seals that hold him in prison, and your mission is to fight and find the missing seals. In single player mode, you play as Eleya, but she only moves by foot. So, you may prefer the multi-player mode, which allows you to use the Portal Stones and Ter'angreal. The big plus of the game, of course, is that you get to personally explore the White Tower, Shadar Logoth, the Fortress of the Forsaken, and the Outpost of the Children of the Light. The bad news is that you don't get to fight Padon Fain, or play as Rand himself. For 10 points, name this game by Infogrames, which serves as a prequel to the (as of this writing) 9-volume novel series of the same name by Robert Jordan.

Answer: Wheel of Time

9) In 1997, we learned their fate. One became chief smoke jumper for the US Forest Service, another turned his avocation into a career driving stock cars on the pro tour, and the third went to Duke University, to work on a Ph.D. in ecology. In their hometown, the justice of the peace had passed away and was replaced by the sheriff, a former deputy had become a sergeant in the LAPD, and (in a bit of television verite) a local boy won election to Congress. For 10 points, identify the TV program whose reunion show thus described brought Tom Wopat & John Schneider back together.

Answer: Dukes of Hazzard (prompt if they name any of the Dukes or if they say "Hazzard")

10) Born in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, he did his undergraduate work at Marquette, before going to Vietnam as a Navy navigator. He then returned to the US, earning a Master's in computer science from American University, and starting his own business as a marketing consultant for Fortune 500 companies. As part of this job, he found numerous sources of federal money through various programs, and decided to publish the names and numbers of these federal programs. For 10 points, name this man, who claims to drive the world's only yellow polka-dot Lexus, author of Getting Yours and Free Money to Change your Life, master of the government goldmine.

Answer: Matthew Lesko

11) Throwing a pitch when facing away from the batter, throwing a pitch during an intentional walk when the catcher isn't in the catcher's box, unnecessarily delaying the game, standing on the rubber without the ball, dropping the ball, quick-pitching, throwing or feinting a throw to an unoccupied base while on the rubber, feinting a throw to first base while on the rubber, delivering a pitch from the set position without coming to a stop, and failing to step directly toward a base before throwing to it while on the rubber. For 10 points, these are just some of the explicit behaviors that will earn a pitcher, for 10 points, what?

Answer: balk

12) Rick Nelson's brother-in-law, he was chosen in 1986 as People Magazine's Sexiest Man Alive. The next year, he married Pam Dawber. A two-year letterman at quarterback for UCLA, he was undrafted, and so he began a film career, playing Billy Joe Meynert in Alan J. Pakula's Comes a Horseman. Roles in Let's Get Harry, Summer School, and Stealing Home followed. For 10 points, name this poor man's Kevin Costner, perhaps best known as a TV doctor, either Robert Caldwell on St. Elsewhere or Jack McNeil on Chicago Hope.

Answer: Mark Harmon

13) Her new album is titled Color of Silence, and this time, she shares co-writer's credit on most of the album's 13 tracks. By way of comparison, on her first 2 albums, 1987's self-titled debut and 1988's Hold a Friend's Hand, she wasn't credited with co-writing any of them. For 10 points, name this single-named singer, last name Darwisch, who assaulted us all in late 80's mall tours, in support of such classic hits as "Could've Been", "I Saw Him Standing There" and "I Think We're Alone Now."

Answer: Tiffany (accept Darwisch before it's said, but not without looking at them in disappointment)

14) Although it contains no violence, no graphic sex, no nudity, and minimal profanity, it was slapped with an NC-17 rating by the MPAA, mostly due to scenes of females reaching orgasm without male assistance. It stars Bonnie Root as Stream, the upper-class daughter of a sculptress who begins a sexual relationship with a Big Man on Campus, only to grow disillusioned by her lack of sexual satisfaction. She remains thus until finding love and gratification with Henry, played by Ryan Reynolds of Two Guys and a Girl fame. FTP, name this film, an audience award winner at Sundance in 1999, whose name is a pun for what the women depicted in it would like to be.

A: COMING SOON

15) Reason magazine contributor Jesse Walker attempted to cast a write-in vote for this character in the 2000 presidential election. Walker was later disturbed to discover that he ran for office on a platform of "rabbit genocide" in a cartoon called Ballot Box Bunny. For 10 points, name this roughest, toughest, meanest, and possibly shortest old prospector west of the Pecos, a rootin', tootin', six-gun shootin' enemy of Bugs Bunny.

Answer: Yosemite Sam

16) Sister-in-law of Ricardo Montalban, she died in his house at the age of 87 from ovarian cancer. Her daughter, Judy Lewis, had a brief acting career as well, playing Barbara Vining on General Hospital, but that was nothing compared to her career, including such roles as Julia Brougham in The Bishop's Wife, Katrin Holstrom in The Farmer's Daughter (for which she won a Best Actress Oscar, and Claire Blake in Call of the Wild. It was this role which may have truly changed her life, since she and co-star Clark Gable had a train-bound tryst returning home from shooting that resulted in Judy's birth. For 10 points, name this actress, three-time Emmy Winner for the 50s & 60s series Letter to Loretta.

Answer: Loretta Young

17) At least 3 of its cast members were Jewish. In fact, one of them had to flee with his family when Hitler took power, while another wasn't so lucky and spent time in a concentration camp. After the show, one member, Larry Hovis, became a regular on The Liar's Club, while another was a regular on Laugh-In before becoming a big time game show host. Of course, the lead actor suffered perhaps the worst fate; his 1978 homicide is still one of the great real-life mysteries in Hollywood. For 10 points, name this show, which ran from 1965-1971, starring Robert Clary, John Banner, Werner Klemperer, and Bob Crane, set in Nazi Germany.

Answer: Hogan's Heroes

18) His self-titled debut CD contains love songs in both English & Spanish, presumably to capitalize on the Latin music movement. The most significant song biographically might be "With These Hands", in which he describes how he will care for the woman of his heart, and not, as expected, how he earns a living in his day job. For 10 points, name this Latin heartthrob, winner of a 1992 Olympic gold medal, and former WBC welterweight champion.

Answer: Oscar de la Hoya

19) Born in Gdynia, Poland in 1908, he studied economics & political science at the University of Warsaw & engineering & radionics at Warsaw Technical Institute, before getting a position at the Ministry of Posts & Telegraphs. His access to numerous secrets made him a valuable information agent for the Allies during World War II, and after the war, he was decorated by the British, Americans, and French. He then retired to South America, to work on a "private enterprise for private profit." For 10 points, name this man, portrayed on screen by many, including Donald Pleasance, Telly Savalas, & Max Von Sydow, the founder of SPECTRE.

Answer: Ernst Stavro Blofeld

20) The inventor is actually a man named Michael Boehm, who developed it in conjunction with Salton, Inc. The company is reporting that they expect to sell their 20 millionth one sometime this year, and that somewhere between 12 & 15 percent of all US households have at least one. The inspiration for it came to Boehm, who enjoys a good burger every now and again, when he couldn't find an indoor grill that cooked on both sides. So, he invented one, and found somebody to endorse it, somebody also known to enjoy a good burger (or six) every now and again. For 10 points, name this cooking utensil, hawked on infomercials by its namesake spokesman, a retired boxer.

Answer: George Foreman Grill (accept anything they say that includes those words, including "George Foreman Fat-Free Grill," etc.)

21) Her husband Stephen is something of an actor – probably his biggest role was as the ghost of Elvis in Jim Jarmusch's Mystery Train. Although her own music career hasn't gotten off the ground yet, she is the namesake of songs by Paul Krassner, Ross Shafer, and Gone. For 10 points, identify this one-time pitch-woman for her own psychic phone network and presidential litigant.

Answer: Paula Jones

BONI – FINALS

TRASHMASTERS 2000 – UT-CHATTANOOGA

Questions by Tiresias with occasional Victorians

1) OK, I lied. One of these boni was actually written by Charlie himself, who could not believe that no one submitted a single Battlebots question. No Minion? No Mechadon? No Chiabot? Sad. Anyway, name these battle casters from the show, 5 for one, 10 for 2, 20 for 3, or 30 for all four:

(a) Mentioned earlier in the tournament as host of Fox Sport's "Ultimate Fan League," he lists his greatest accomplishment as the role of Todderbert in Ski School 2.

Answer: Bil Dwyer

(b) Dwyer's cohost is this former Vikings and Chargers QB and cohost of NFL2Night on ESPN2.

Answer:

(c) The show's technical expert, he pre-tapes segments on the weigh-in, describes their weaponry, etc. He wears the signature bowtie from his days as PBS' "Science Guy."

Answer: Bill Nye

(d) This feature reporter got her first, um, exposure as Playboy's Miss September 1995 before roles as Donna Marco on Baywatch and Baywatch Nights and as the press secretary in National Lampoon's Men in White.

Answer: Donna D'Errico

2) Of course, you have to begin a football team with a quarterback, which is why the first 5 players chosen in the draft were quarterbacks. FTSNOP, answer these questions about the inaugural XFL draft.

a) First, for 5 points, name the former U. Maryland quarterback who became the #1 overall pick for the Los Angeles Xtreme

Answer: Scott Milanovich

b) Second, for 10 points, name the one-time New Orleans Saints running back that the San Francisco Demons selected with the sixth pick, ending the run of quarterbacks that started the draft.

Answer: Vaughn Dunbar

c) Finally, for 15 points, name the true Mr. Irrelevant, the last player chosen in the XFL draft and newest Chicago Enforcer, a one-time punter for the Chiefs from the University of Iowa.

Answer: Nick Gallery

3) 30-20-10-5-1, name the actor, given roles.

30) Captain Jonathan S. Tuttle, a doctor who falls from a helicopter and leaves his GI insurance benefits to a local orphanage in a 1973 episode of *M*A*S*H*.

20) Ezra D. Wallingford, an American industrialist who left Alfred P. Doolittle 4000 pounds a year in his will to found Moral Reform Societies in My Fair Lady.

10) Floyd Thursby, the menacing man Ruth Wonderly's sister Corinne ran away with in The Maltese Falcon.

5) Rebecca, former wife of Maxim de Winter in the Alfred Hitchcock movie of the same name.

1) Sir Not-Appearing-in-this-Film, Knight of the Round Table in Monty Python and the Holy Grail.

Answer: no one (accept equivalencies)

4) The latest Hootie & the Blowfish album Scattered, Smothered and Covered refers, of course to Waffle House hashbrowns, as well as the fact that most of the songs on this disc are cover tracks. For 5 points each, given a song on that album, name the artist or band that originally recorded it.

a) "Hey Hey What Can I Do"

Answer: Led Zeppelin

b) "Driver 8"

Answer: REM

c) "Please Please Please Let Me Get What I Want"

Answer: The Smiths

d) "Dream Baby"

Answer: Roy Orbison

For a final 5 each, what two extra items does Waffle House add to make hashbrowns smothered and covered?

Answers: onions & cheese

5) 30-20-10, name the man.

30) His father is Ted Irvine, a left winger for the Boston Bruins, LA Kings, NY Rangers, and St. Louis Blues from 1964-77.

20) He bears an eerie resemblance to Moongoose McQueen, lead singer of the seminal metal band Fozzy, who introduced Japan to the sound, with such classics as "The Prisoner," "Live Wire," and "Stand Up and Shout."

10) A 2-time WWF Intercontinental Champion, he's perhaps best known as the Ayatollah of Rock and Roll-ah.

Answer: Chris Jericho

6) VISUAL BONUS – Hand out the attached sheet.

ESPN.com recently asked readers who had the wildest hair in sports. You, of course, will get the chance to answer that question yourself. FTSNOP identify the athlete from the picture and a description of the 'do.

a) 10 points -- The Rasta Marge. Make me look like the love child of Allen Iverson and Marge Simpson.

Answer: Edgerrin James

b) 15 points -- "A-B-C, It's easy as 1-2-3, As simple as do re mi, A-B-C, 1-2-3 Baby you and me, girl" <BLANK>, the NBA's next King of Pop.

Answer: Shammond Williams

c) 5 points -- Wet Poodle. Helps soften the impact of all those headers. Or maybe there's just a lot of static electricity in Colombia.

Answer: Carlos Valderrama

7) Let the record show that the author of this question recently made a horrendous error. At one tournament, he played under the name "Victor Buono as the Clock King." If you were laughing at him for not remembering that it was Walter Slezak who was the Clock King, and that Victor Buono was King Tut, consider yourself lucky. If not, consider yourself tormented. For 10 points each, name the actor who played the following villains on TV's Batman. If you need another role for each actor, you'll earn only 5 points. HINT: Each of them only appeared once as a villain on the show.

a) 10 points – Ma Parker

5 points – Belle Rosen in The Poseidon Adventure

Answer: Shelley Winters

b) 10 points – The Bookworm

5 points – Dr. Cornelius in The Planet of the Apes

Answer: Roddy McDowell

c) 10 points – The Black Widow

5 points – Constance "Connie" Porter in Lifeboat

Answer: Tallulah Bankhead

8) For the stated number of points, answer these questions about the so-called "Poltergeist curse".

a) For 10 points, this actress, who beat out Drew Barrymore for the role of Carol Anne Freeling, died in 1988 at the age of 12 from an intestinal blockage.

Answer: Heather O'Rourke

b) For 15 points, this actress, daughter of a famous writer and sister of an actor-director, who played Dana Freeling, was killed by her abusive boyfriend the year Poltergeist was released.

Answer: Dominique Dunne

c) For 5 points, this director, who'd had a career before Poltergeist, didn't have one after it, although he did film a sequel to his first major success, as well as directing Billy Idol's "Dancing with Myself".

Answer: Tobe Hooper

9) One time, a buddy of Victoria's was in the liquor store, buying Schnappes for an underage friend. The man behind him was rather unimpressed, and scoffed, "(expletive deleted!). That won't get you drunk!" So in that tradition...FTPE, identify the following girlie drinks from ingredients.

1. 2 oz. gin, 1/2 oz. grenadine, 1 egg white.

A: PINK LADY

2. 1.5 oz. vodka, 3 oz. tomato juice, dash of lemon juice, 1/2 tsp. worcestershire sauce, 2 drops of tabasco sauce.

A: BLOODY MARY

3. 1 oz. Kahlua, 1 oz. Creme de Menthe, 1 oz. Creme de Cacao, and 2 oz. cream.

A: GIRL SCOUT COOKIE

10) You've surely noticed by now that half the movies that come out steal their titles from songs. For the stated number of points, given a recording artist or band, name the movie that took its title from one of their songs. To make things a bit easier, and to be as specific as possible, you'll also get the names of two actors in that movie.

a) 5 points: Grand Funk Railroad, starring Lea Thompson & Eric Stoltz Answer: Some Kind of Wonderful

b) 5 points: Bonnie Raitt, starring Dennis Quaid & Julia Roberts Answer: Something to Talk About

c) 10 points: Paul Simon, starring Noah Wyle & Julianne Moore Answer: The Myth of Fingerprints

d) 10 points: Bonnie Raitt, starring Samantha Mathis & River Phoenix Answer: The Thing Called Love

11) That Tim Jeffries, what a guy! I know what you're asking -- WHO? Tim Jeffries, just some random British art dealer who's been "romantically linked" with half of the most gorgeous women in England. Think I'm kidding? For 5 points each, and a 5 point bonus for all 5, name these one-time Jeffries love interests:

a) The most recent was this supermodel who was found in a commercial by Lycos the dog.

Answer: Claudia Schiffer

b) Another was this Aussie who ripped off, I mean, re-recorded Little Eva's "Locomotion".

Answer: Kylie Minogue

c) A third was this supermodel turned actress whose commercial in Canada this year made her a strike-breaker.

Answer: Elizabeth Hurley

d) Still another supermodel turned actress, she won some degree of acclaim for her performance in the 1994 Hugh Grant (speaking of Elizabeth Hurley...) movie Sirens.

Answer: Elle Macpherson

e) Finally, possibly the worst actress of the lot (and yes, that includes Kylie Minogue), this soft-core pornstar who played a very minor role in Star Wars (Camie, for you completists out there) is most renowned for her affair with Britain's Prince Andrew.

Answer: Koo Stark

12) Dylan Sanders, Natalie Cook and Alex Munday, my ass. For 5 points each, give the full (first and last) names of all 6 of Charlie's Angels portrayed on TV by Farrah Fawcett Majors, Kate Jackson, Jaclyn Smith, Cheryl Ladd, Shelley Hack, and Tanya Roberts.

Answers (respectively): Kelly Garrett, Sabrina Duncan, Jill Munroe, Kris Munroe, Tiffany Welles, and Julie Rogers.

13) Kazuhiro Sasaki – the only man to earn two distinct honors: winning rookie of the year and appearing as a judge on Iron Chef. For the stated number of points, answer these questions about Sasaki.

a) For 5 points, what team did he pitch for in 2000?

Answer: Seattle Mariners (accept either)

b) For 15 points, what team did he pitch for prior to 2000, winning best reliever honors in the Japanese Central League for four straight years?

Answer: Yokohama BayStars (accept either)

c) Sasaki became the second oldest man to win rookie of the year honors, as he was 33 days younger than, for 10 points, what 1950 Boston Brave and former Negro Leaguer?

Answer: Sam Jethroe

14) Time to get dolled up! Given products made by a makeup company, name it FTPE.

1. Street Wear, Moon Drops lipstick, Colorstay foundation and lipcolor.

A: REVLON

2. Different Lipstick, Dramatically Different Moisturizing Lotion, City Block tinted sunscreen.

A: CLINIQUE

3. Nailwear, Color Rich Renewable Lipstick, Glimmersticks.

A: AVON

15) THE NEWLY DEAD GAME: If there's any more dangerous job title in the world than "mayor in Colombia", it's "rapper". For the stated number of points, given the name at birth of a rap artist and some biographical data, name the member of the 2000 necrology.

a) 10 points – Born Christopher Rios, he was the first Latin rapper to go double platinum, with 1998's "Still Not a Playa".

Answer: Big Punisher (accept: Big Pun)

b) 5 points – Born Joe Calleja, he joined Twisted Brown Trucker in the early 90s, often appearing with Kid Rock in his appearances, notably as Jerry Lee Lewis', uh, youthful bride in an episode of Saturday Night Live and getting stuffed into a garbage can by Edge & Christian on Monday Night Raw.

Answer: Joe C.

c) 15 points – Born Robert Earl Davis, he pioneered a particular style of production, which involved slowing records to half-speed. A big hit remixer on Napster, his own albums, such as All Work No Play, were never big sellers.

Answer: DJ Screw

16) FTSNOP, answer these questions about opera. And no, I haven't forgotten where we are.

a) For 10 points, taking his cue from the atonality that is Alban Berg, what musician, whose albums include Closing Time and Small Change, has adapted Georg Buchner's play Woyzeck into an opera with director Robert Wilson?

Answer: Tom Waits

b) F5PE, what two men, one the author of The Tommyknockers, the other composer of Rough Harvest and Key West Intermezzo and director of Falling from Grace collaborated on an as-yet-to-be-titled opera?

Answers: Stephen King & John Mellencamp

c) The Cleveland Opera commissioned Holy Blood and Crescent Moon, a critically acclaimed 1989 opera set in the Crusades, from this former member of the Police.

Answer: Stewart Copeland

17) Given something that happened to one of the main characters on Sex and the City, name her FTPE. First name only necessary.

1. Had a man fall asleep during sex.

A: CHARLOTTE

2. Took Viagra.

A: SAMANTHA

3. Learned the joys of the spin cycle from her boyfriend!

A: MIRANDA

18) For the stated number of points, answer these questions about the game none of us are going to find under the tree on Christmas morning, PlayStation 2.

a) For 5 points, what is the controller called, a follow-up to the controller for the original PlayStation, which has analog buttons, thus responding to the hardness or softness with which the button is pushed?

Answer: Dual Shock 2 (prompt on just Dual Shock)

b) For 10 points, give the common name for the iLink port, which allows the PS2 to be connected to other machines.

Answer: Firewire

c) For 15 points, give the alpha-numeric designation for that iLink port.

Answer: IEEE 1394

19) Did you know that there's a Spice Girls quiz on cnn.com? For 5 points each, answer these questions about the quote band end of quote adapted from that quiz. Oh, and please, names only – they've given up those tawdry market-gimmick nicknames, and so should we...

a) Which one sold the rights to her autobiography for nearly $1.5 million?

Answer: Victoria Beckham

b) Who released a solo album, Northern Lights, which earned her 3 MTV Europe Music Award nominations?

Answer: Melanie Chisholm (accept Mel C.)

c) Which one turned her, um, hand to modeling, winning a poll during London's Fashion Week as the Ultimate Fashion Icon?

Answer: Victoria Beckham

d) In what city was David & Victoria Beckham's child conceived, hence his name?

Answer: Brooklyn

d) Which one covered Cameo's Word Up for Austin Powers: The Spy who Shagged Me?

Answer: Melanie Brown (accept Mel B.)

f) Which one hosted her own show on VH1 UK last year, getting to show her own favorite videos?

Answer: Emma Bunton

20) It was Halloween night, and while the rest of us were eating too much candy or dodging rioters, some very tall men were playing a game, wherein they tried to throw a ball through a basket of some sort. For the stated number of points, given an NBA team, name its starting center on opening night.

a) 5 points, Seattle Supersonics

Answer: Patrick Ewing

b) 5 points, New York Knicks

Answer: Marcus Camby

c) 10 points, Dallas Mavericks

Answer: Christian Laettner

d) 10 points, New Jersey Nets

Answer: Evan Eschmeyer

21. When your redoubtable assistant tournament director strolled into a friend's house, looked at the TV screen and saw an episode of The Outer Limits featuring Heather Graham, the germ of a question idea came to him. FTSNOP, given a role Ms. Graham played and the year it came out, name the movie.

a) 5 points, Judy Robinson, 1998

Answer: Lost in Space

b) 5 points, Felicity Shagwell, 1999

Answer: Austin Powers: The Spy who Shagged Me
(prompt on either half)

c) 10 points, Annie Blackburn, 1992

Answer: Twin Peaks: Fire Walk with Me (prompt on either half)

d) 10 points, Mary Kennedy Taylor, 1994

Answer: Mrs. Parker and the Vicious Circle