TOSSUPS – WEAPONS OF ASS DESTRUCTION

TRASHMASTERS 2004 – UT-CHATTANOOGA

Questions by Chris Hendry et al. with help from Billy Beyer and your genial quizmaster

1. He has cousins named Clem, Zeke, Rufus, Billy Bob, Billy Jim, Billy Billy Banana-fana Fo Filly, Tug, Enos, and Rainchild...among plenty of others. He also has a computer wife named Karen, who finds it quite amusing that his first name is Sheldon. He once fell into one of his own inventions, a component analyzer, that determined he was made up of 1% evil, 99% hot gas. Voiced by Mr. Lawrence, this is, FTP, what purveyor of the Chum Bucket and tiny, constant seeker of the secret formula for the Krabby Patty?

Answer: Plankton

2. The first is Pure Potentiality. Next comes Giving, and then Cause and Effect, or Karma. The fourth is Least Effort. The fifth is "Intention and Desire." After this comes Detachment, and lastly "Purpose in Life", or Dharma. Collectively, they are a "practical guide to the fulfillment of your dreams." FTP, what are these principles introduced to us in 1993 by Deepak Chopra?

Answer: The Seven Spiritual Laws of Success

3. At the age of 17, she moved into Pickfaire, one of Old Hollywood's most famous mansions. There, she grew accustomed to regular traffic of Playboy Playmates. At age 19, she became the General Manager of her own World Team Tennis franchise. All of this life experience culminated in 1995 when she not only became a Playboy centerfold herself, but was also named as an executive of the local NBA team. She's had a fling with John McEnroe and was once married to volleyball gold medallist Steve Timmons. FTP, name this LA Lakers Executive VP, longtime girlfriend of Phil Jackson, and daughter of Lakers owner Jerry.

Answer: Jeannie Buss

4. Chris attends the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and his easygoing but accident-prone. Jim is also from Massachusetts and owns a stonemason business. Glenn owns 26 businesses and Mindy used to be correspondent on Entertainment Tonight. Pat makes videos about earth science and frequently appears on newscasts covering natural disasters. Kate's mom was a contestant in Survivor 6: Amazon, and hails from Missouri, not Kansas. And Rachael, of course, wears a shiny evening gown...exclusively. Each bested (or will soon best) his or her counterpart to remain, um, stranded, FTP, where?

Answer: The Real Gilligan's Island (do not accept references to the GOLD TEAM, as Skipper Jim was the only survivor from the GREEN TEAM)

5. Represented are Anderson Cooper 360, Loew's Theatres, Maxell, Kevin Hill, Bertlsmann Music Group, McDonalds, Kodak, Virgin, and especially Team America World Police. Apparently MTV has gotten a bit lax on the pixelation of corporate logos in music videos, since all of these can be clearly seen in this 2004 video. Of course, the digital artists would have had to blur practically the entire background since it was filmed in the middle of Times Square. FTP name this Nathaniel Hornblower-directed video, the latest from the Beastie Boys' "To the 5 Boroughs."

Answer: Right Right Now Now

6. JJ is a domineering patriarch. He believes that disputes should be settled through kicking ass than through civilized means. In their struggle to break away from him and his trucking empire, one son dies in the Korean War, while another is arrested for murder. Only Gary, the youngest son, manages to survive the familial carnage. Throw in the lustful romantic liaisons of daughter Ali and you've got the makings for a real dandy of a potboiler. FTP, name this 1975 release which starred Forrest Tucker as JJ, the directorial debut of Max Baer, Jr.

Answer: The Wild McCullochs

7. Along with a 2000 drunk driving bust (for which he pleaded guilty), he was indicted in October 2001 for assaulting his wife and one of her friends during a domestic dispute. In December 2002, he pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor harassment count and was directed to attend anger control classes, pay a $1000 fine, and ordered not to drink to excess (specifically beyond the state's .08 limit), while 2003 found him filing for bankruptcy. FTP, name this hero of the 16th-inning, 1986 Game Six World Series rally, one half of the "Partners in Grime" duo with Len Dykstra, and former Arizona Diamondbacks manager fired only four days after being hired.

Answer: Wally Backman

8. Born in Concord, MA and raised in Knoxville, TN, his first drawings showed up in the Doyle High Trailblazer, his High School newspaper. A rugby fanatic, he graduated in 1994 with Fine Arts and Art History degrees from Amherst. In 1999, United Features Syndicate began syndication of his comic strip, which depicts the life of a young bachelor and his two adorable, if somewhat insane pets. Winner of the 2002 Best Newspaper Comic Award, FTP name this artist, the man who created the characters of Rob Wilco, Bucky Katt, and Satchel Pooch in the comic strip Get Fuzzy.

Answer: Darby Conley

9. An Illinois native, he provided the voice of the Captain in the English version of Cowboy Bebop: The Movie. Better known as a musician, he was instrumental in the 1969 "Bringing the Blues Back Home" festival in Chicago's Grant Park, the forerunner to the annual Chicago Blues Festival. His work with Chicago's Second City helped him become friends with John Belushi, who would be involved in providing the role for which he is best known. FTP, name this man, the front man for the Magictones and pianist extraordinaire for Joliet Jake and Elwood Blues.

Answer: Murph(y) Dunne

10. He went to grade school with members of Maroon 5 and to high school with Jason Segel of "Freaks and Geeks", and he got his first driving lesson from Paul Newman. His first film role was as Bill Crystal's son in City Slickers. He did not appear in Pleasantville, The Ice Storm, or Seabiscuit. FTP name this actor, who did appear in October Sky, The Day After Tomorrow, and Donnie Darko.

Answer: Jake Gyllenhaal

EDITOR'S NOTE in case they don't get it: the 3rd sentence is to distinguish him from his doppelganger, Tobey Maguire.

11. The debut episode of CSI: New York was a blatant ripoff of this book. In it, Detective Inspector Tom Thorne is investigating a series of strange murders where women are being drugged and killed in a virtually undetectable manner. Until that is, when the killer does the job "properly" and succeeds in causing a victim to enter "locked in syndrome" which is caused by the pinching off of the carotid artery for a short enough period of time so that the victim looks to be vegetative, but is completely aware of what is going on around them. FTP, name this novel, the debut for British Comedian Mark Billingham.

Answer: Sleepyhead

12. Not only was it made-for-TV, it stretched that title further by being a made-for-SYNDICATED-TV movie. Regardless, it had such an interesting premise and was such a hit that it spawned a worse-than-the-first sequel the following year, with several returning characters, but only one actor reprising her original role – Zohra Lampert as Wilma Farnham. FTP, name this 1980 TV movie about Kirby Winter, his inherited uncle's extraordinary invention, and Bonnie Lee Beaumont starring Robert Hays and Pam Dawber – the certain inspiration for the 2002 big screen flick Clockstoppers.

Answer: The Girl, The Gold Watch, and Everything

13. He was invited to stop dealing drugs and move to New Orleans at the age of 16 after being discovered by Cash Money's Brian "Baby" Williams. After spending 4 years behind the scenes, he got frustrated, went back home to Nashville, and started dealing again, got which eventually netted him two gunshot wounds. It was around this time that he and rapper D-Tay recorded and released Thuggin' Til the End to little fanfare. Shortly thereafter, he was invited to go on tour with Juvenile – who was also fed up with slow progress at Cash Money. When the tour hit New York, he met 50 Cent and was soon asked to join G-Unit. FTP, name this gansta born David Darnell Brown, who solo album, Straight Outta Cashville debuted at #3 in August 2004, but is certainly more notorious of late for allegedly stabbing Jimmy James Johnson after Johnson attacked Dr. Dre at this year's always-eventful Vibe Awards.

Answer: Young Buck

14. Born August 28, 1981, he was a 2000 graduate of Willard High School. While in High School he broke 17 school records, including passing yards (6,209) and TD passes (54). As of the beginning of the 2003-04 Football season he has compiled 8,426 passing yards and 46 touchdowns, making him a candidate for the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas Awards along with the Heisman Trophy. FTP, name this player who received his biggest exposure on Nov. 5, 2004 when he led his Akron Zips to a come from behind 31-28 victory against Marshall, the next first round QB from the MAC.

Answer: Charlie Frye

15. Coma victims love them. If you're tired, blue and can't get out of bed, don't worry. They deliver! They even offer curbside service for those who call in and then are too much of a fat ass to get out of the car. So come on in and get a plate of Zesty Onion Wings, a loaf of Salsa Cookie Bread, a 96 oz. tankard of Tonic Water, or sample some of their fantastic Honey-Maple-Ranch Sauce! FTP, name this restaurant, where you'll wish you'd had less fun, an official sponsor of Sealab 2021.

Answer: Grizzlebee's

16. Based on a book by Mark Miller, it tells the story of the young daughter of a politician who runs away because she is unhappy due to lack of attention from her parents. She hides in the car of two not-so-bright fugitives, who end up becoming the adoring parent figures that she always wanted. Fun filled, family friendly hilarity ensues as the police close in on the supposed kidnappers. Remade by French director Marco Pico in 1988, this is FTP what movie starring Mark Miller as Alvie, Donovan Scott as Boots, and Bridgette Andersen as the title character?

Answer: Savannah Smile

17. As a teenager, he was recruited to Professor Charles Xavier's "school for gifted youngsters" but was self-conscious since he was the youngest member of the original team. After the White Queen took over his body, he went through a period of deep depression and realized that he never reached the true potential of his abilities. For ten points -- name this X-Men superhero with the alias Bobby Drake who can shape ice formations into any structure.

Answer: Iceman [accept Bobby Drake before it's said]

18. Antwon got two fish named Ike and Tina. Wyatt got a new wing and Logan got a Blackberry. Christine got a massager for her Grandma Jessie, while Nile got her own river...and some new heels. All of this thanks to Jimmy, Alex, Danny, Aren, Ish, Big Dane, Mad Mike and the rest of the good folks at West Coast Customs -- yep, there's the giveaway. So quick, FTP, name this ultra-cool MTV series hosted by X-to-the-Z, Xzibit.

Answer: Pimp My Ride

19. The son of a Church of God minister, he had a fairly successful boxing career culminating in a 1988 appearance on USA's Friday Night Fights where he lost via TKO to an aging Roberto Duran. Over the next 12 years he turned his attention to music, and in 1997 he was discovered by Miles Copeland and signed to A&M Records. His first two albums Hammer and Nail and Ain't Love Strange went unnoticed, but his 2002 album Mission Temple Fireworks Stand got him opening act duties for Sting and Mark Knopfler. FTP, name this alternative blues/rock artist, featured heavily on The Bob and Tom Show most famously for his song "It's a Great Day to Whup Somebody's Ass."

Answer: Paul Thorn

20. Winner of the 1966 Heisman Trophy, he was selected by the San Francisco 49ers with the third pick in the 1967 NFL Draft. Playing with the 49ers from 1967 to 1975, his first stint in coaching was for the Tampa Bay Bandits of the now-defunct USFL. Coaching there from 1983-1985, he then took over at Duke where he posted a 20-13-1 record. For ten points -- name this former Washington Redskins and University of Florida coach.

Answer: Steve Spurrier

21. Invented by Max Keith, it was originally made from byproducts of cheese and jam production and its name comes from the German word for imagination. Acquired by The Coca-Cola Company in 1960, it is more popular in Europe than the United States. While the orange flavor represents 70% of its sales, there are several other citrus and fruit flavors such as apple, strawberry, pineapple, and grape. For ten points -- name this 'fantastic' beverage.

Answer: Fanta

22. In August of 2003, a U.S. court said this technically falls within the terms for suicide while one in June of 2003 said it does not. Briefly mentioned in Erika Barr's "Acquisition of Power" and the movie "Ken Park", it is an important plot element in the films "The Ruling Class" and "Rising Sun." The certain cause of death for the British Conservative MP for Eastleigh, Stephen Milligan, it is the possible cause of death for Jerzy Kosinski and Michael Hutchence. For ten points -- name this practice of self-strangulation while masturbating.

Answer: autoerotic asphyxiation

23. Set in a big department store, it featured Jodie, a store display designer who along with mannequin turned human Jeff served up daily helpings of singing, dancing, comedy and more. Along with their puppet friends Muffy the Mouse, Sam the Security Guard, and female supercomputer TXL they provided the recommended daily allowances of early childhood education and sweet, joyful entertainment. Produced by Ontario TV for seven seasons, it had its highest profile run on Nickelodeon from 1981-87. FTP, say "Hocus Pocus Alamagocus" and "shout loud and clear" the name of this 80's cable TV gem.

Answer: Today's Special

24. Tony Hill empathizes with serial murderers and their victims. So much so, that when he is called in to consult on a case, he can actually see the crime. His eccentricity and his unorthodox investigating style make it sometimes hard for his colleague, Detective Inspector Carol Jordan, to trust him. Based on the novels of Val McDermid, this is FTP a brief description of what Saturday night BBC America crime drama starring Touching Evil's Robson Green?

Answer: Wire in the Blood
