

“Yo!, Pass the AUX Cord, You Better Not Read” TRASH set II: The Remix...

Questions written by: Dexter Wickham, Zachary Beltz, Caden Stone, Alexandria Hill, Trenton Kiesling, Aleesa Hill, Eliot Chastain, Brendan Morris. Rush Chairman: Joshua Malecki. Questions edited by: Joshua Malecki. The Fort Osage High School.

Round 1

1. The only single released from this band’s second album, Rio Grande Mud, is a song called “Francine” about the singer’s love for a teenage girl. On this band’s third album, the first and second tracks, “Waitin’ for the Bus” and “Jesus Just Left Chicago”* are usually played back-to-back on classic radio due to an engineering error. When this band reunited after a three year hiatus in 1979, band members Billy Gibbons and Dusty Hill had grown out chest-length beards, which became their signature. For 10 points, name this Texas-based band, whose 1983 album Eliminator showcased songs like “Legs,” and “Gimme All Your Lovin.”

ZZ Top

2. This 2017 film marked the final onscreen appearances of both Bill Paxton and Glenn Headly who plays the protagonist’s parents. The protagonist is working at a temp job when she is hired by the titular tech company* to work in Customer Experience. Tom Hanks’ character in this movie is a surfing-obsessed tech creator who introduces the “SeeChange” cameras, which can be placed on any surface anywhere. For 10 points, name this film, starring Emma Watson as Mae, who allows her entire life to be filmed by the titular corporation.

The Circle

3. This TV show was a spin-off of one of the highest rated shows in the 1980’s and this TV show’s September, 1987 pilot is still the highest rated pilot episode in broadcast history. Tupac Shakur guest starred as the boyfriend of Jada Pinkett’s character in one episode of this show, which was set at Hillman College,* a historically black college in Virginia. This show was intended as a vehicle for Lisa Bonet’s character Denise Huxtable, but Bonet left after the first season. For 10 points, name this TV show, that spun-off The Cosby Show and starred Jasmine Guy as Whitley and Kadeem Hardison as Dwayne Wayne.

A Different World

4. The makers of this video game were inspired by the graphics of games like Primal Rage and Arch Rivals, and Stephen Howard of DePaul University was the model player for it. Mike Iuzzolino {OO-ZOE-LEE-NO} appears as one of the two Dallas Mavericks players in this video game* despite leaving the team the year this game came out. Michael Jordan does not appear in this game due to licensing restrictions, leaving Scottie Pippen and Horace Grant to represent the Chicago Bulls. For 10 points, name this 1993 arcade game by Midway that introduced catchphrases such as “he’s on fire!” and “boomshakalaka.”

NBA Jam

5. This soccer star was named as the most marketable athlete in the world in 2013, and his endorsements include Nike and Beats by Dre. This star left his club team Santos of Brazil in 2013 to join FC Barcelona,* where he played for four seasons. This Brazilian star was injured in the 2014 World Cup quarterfinal against Colombia, which caused him to miss the semifinal match in which Germany beat Brazil 7-1. For 10 points, name this soccer player, who left Barcelona for Paris-St. Germain {ZHAIR-MAH} in 2017 and captains the Brazilian National Team.

Neymar, Jr.

6. This band’s self-titled 2002 EP is referred to by fans as “Us Kids Know,” and one song on it was later reworked for this band’s 2007 album Neon Bible. This band’s 2004 debut album, Funeral, was nominated for the 2005 Grammy for “Best Alternative Music Album,” and features the massive hits, “Wake Up”* and “Rebellion (Lies).” This band’s 2010 album Suburbs won the 2011 Grammy Award for Album of the Year, and one reviewer described it as “one long sequel to their 2007 hit song ‘No Cars Go.’” For 10 points, name this Canadian indie-rock band who released their 5th album “Everything Now” in 2017.

Arcade Fire

7. This film opens with the protagonist looking through the picture window of a downtown department store at the newest toys. That protagonist narrates the story of his quest for the ultimate holiday gift, which his mother tells him will “shoot* his eye out!” When that protagonist gets his Little Orphan Annie Decoder Wheel, the secret message is “Don’t Forget to Drink Your Ovaltine!” This film is based on Jean Shepherd’s memoir, “In God We Trust, All Others Pay Ca$h.” For 10 points, name this 1983 film about Ralphie’s quest for a Red Ryder BB gun, which cable network TBS now runs on a 24 loop on its namesake holiday.

A Christmas Story

8. This TV show’s first season’s episodes are titled for the last word said in each episode. In that first season, the action switches from the protagonist being suspected of bombing Grand Central Terminal* in New York City to flashbacks of her and other characters training to be FBI agents at the title location. The protagonist quits the FBI at the end of Season 1 to work for the CIA, but ends up in New York City again when terrorists attack the G-20 Convention. For 10 points, name this TV show starring Priyanka Chopra {PREE-AHNKA --SHOP-RAH} as Alex Parrish in the title FBI training facility in Virginia.

Quantico

9. The horror movie character best associated with this entity found it on a murdered character after having used a burlap sack to disguise himself. Jacques Plante began using one of these during a 1959 NHL* hockey game, after being injured during the first period. Gerry Cheevers of the Boston Bruins used one of these that had stitches all over it as decorations, while Corey Hirsch's featured a drawing of the Bates Motel above the faceguard. For 10 points, name these devices, used by hockey goalies as protection and Jason Voorhees as a disguise.

Hockey mask (accept "goalie mask")

10. The man who hired this ballplayer first interviewed him on the pretense of creating a new Negro League team. This player began his career with the Montreal Royals in 1946, two years after being court-martialed* for refusing to move to the back of a military bus in Texas. This player endured racial taunts and harassment during his 1947 Rookie of the Year winning season, most notably from players and the manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Ben Chapman. For 10 points, name this Brooklyn Dodgers first baseman who broke baseball's "color line."

Jackie Robinson

11. The singer of this song claims that it "is a long day, livin' in Reseda" and that "all the vampires, walking through the Valley, move west down Ventura Boulevard." This song is the opening track on the *Full Moon Fever album, and Tom Cruise's character Jerry Maguire sings this song in his car after being fired from his job at SMI. The singer of this song describes "all the good girls, home with broken hearts," before describing the title action. For 10 points, name this 1989 song, in which the singer describes wanting "to glide down over Mulholland," by Tom Petty.

"Free Fallin'"

12. One character in this film spends his days watching various movies in order to finish his senior thesis about the "Caine-Hackman Theory." The protagonists of this movie reside in a former fraternity house called "The Pit," and are led by a 7th year student nicknamed "Droz."* The residents of 'The Pit' constantly retaliate against the rampant "political correctness" that pervades their Connecticut campus, which includes handing out free cigarettes on Earth Day. For 10 points, name this 1994 film starring Jeremy Piven and David Spade and features a concert by George Clinton and the P-Funk Allstars.

P.C.U. ("Port Chester University")

13. This television show began as a radio show after the titular married couple left The Red Skelton Show, where they performed much of the music. When their sons, David and Ricky, were old enough, they joined the show, and the show moved to television in 1952.* This show based much of the storylines on the actual lives of the family members, and included the wives of David and Ricky when they got married. For 10 points, name this television show that ran from 1952-1966, featuring the namesake "Nelsons" and their "Adventures."

The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet

14. This group began in the 1950's, declined in the 1970's before relaunching in the early 2000's. Musician Thomas Dolby joined this group in 2001, but rapper B.o.B. {SAID: B-O-B} is its most famous recent member. This group was the subject of a Canadian mockumentary called, In Search of the Edge, and members of this group claim that the United Nations flag shows the world* as it really is. This group was criticized by scientist Neil deGrasse Tyson, which prompted B.o.B to record a diss track called "Flatline." For 10 points, name this anti-science group, that claims the world is, in actuality, a disc.

Flat Earth Society (ironically enough, Dolby's biggest hit is called, "She Blinded Me with Science")

15. This former NBA player admitted in divorce proceedings with his ex-wife Tawanna that he couldn't "afford a cheeseburger." This player's extensive alcohol use and wild spending was documented in Kent Babb's 2015 biography Not a Game, and he used his famous "killer crossover,"* on former Laker and current Cleveland Cavalier coach Tyrone Lue in the 2001 NBA Finals. This guard's contentious relationship with his then-Coach Larry Brown of the Philadelphia 76ers led to his famous "practice" rant. For 10 points, name this NBA point guard, who was league MVP in 2001 and was inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2016.

Allen Iverson (A.I.)

16. This song samples lyrics from both Marvin Gaye and Anita Baker, and the Game sampled this song for his song, "Celebration." This song describes how "the po-po creep when they roll slow" and recommends to "keep your bankroll." Chris Rock criticized this song as a "welfare carol,"* since it opens with "get up, get up, cash your checks!" This song ends with the statement, "I gotta get paid on the 1st." For 10 points, name this 1995 song by Bone Thugs-n-Harmony titled after the day that welfare checks arrive.

"1st of tha Month"

17. Randy Newman's 1972 song, "Burn On," about the Cuyahoga River catching fire, is featured in the opening scenes of this sports movie. This movie centers around a new owner taking control of the hapless MLB* franchise, and hoping for a relocation to Miami. Players from such unknown leagues like the California Penal League and the Mexican League become members of a team in this movie, in which the General Manager states that "some of these guys never had a prime." For 10 points, name this 1989 film about the Cleveland Indians, starring Tom Berenger, Charlie Sheen and Wesley Snipes.

Major League

18. During a key scene in this TV show, Ultravox's 1981 hit song, "Vienna" plays as the final message of the protagonist is read. That last message was addressed to Clay Jensen, who receives his box of cassette tapes* at the beginning of the first episode of this controversial TV show.

Clay, Tony, and Skye are seen driving to an unknown destination in the final episode of the first season of this TV show, which was produced and funded by Selena Gomez. For 10 points, name this Netflix series, based on a Young Adult book, about tapes created by Hannah Baker, who explains the reasoning behind her suicide.

Thirteen Reasons Why

19. This NFL franchise once combined with a neighboring rival franchise during World War II due to a loss of manpower. This franchise went to its first Super Bowl in 1980, under coach Dick Vermeil,* but lost to the Oakland Raiders. This franchise's late-1970's struggles were documented in the 2006 movie Invincible about a former player for this team, Vince Papale. Robert DeNiro's character in Silver Linings Playbook is obsessed with this franchise, and is no longer allowed to attend the team's home games at Lincoln Financial Field. For 10 points, name this franchise based in the NFC East whose quarterback is Carson Wentz.

Philadelphia Eagles (accept either one)

20. Space rock band Monster Magnet moved to this city to record their gold-selling album Powertrip, while natives of this city include Ne-Yo and Brandon Flowers of the Killers. 80's glam-rock band Slaughter formed in this city,* while Celine Dion is currently in a musical residency in this city's Caesar's Palace. Other bands from this city include Panic!At The Disco and metalcore group Escape the Fate. For 10 points, name this American city, the title of an Elvis Presley song about a "bright light city/Gonna set my soul on fire."

Las Vegas

21. This singer's first song with Imperial Records was "Fat Man" and it was followed by the R&B hit "Every Night About This Time." This singer's use of triplets became a common musical phrasing in rock n' roll ballads, and in one hit, he described "walking to New Orleans." This singer described how his "tears fell like rain," and "you're the one to blame" in his hit song, "Ain't That a Shame." This singer's biggest hit was a cover of a Glenn Miller song, which describes how the singer "found his thrill" at the title location. For 10 points, name this New Orleans-born pianist and singer who sang "Blueberry Hill."

Fats Domino

BONUSES

1. The producer of this show refused to call it a soap opera, instead referring to it as “high-class anthology drama.” For 10 points each...

(10) Name this television series, based on the extremely popular Grace Metalious novel, set in the title Massachusetts town, with characters such as Michael Rossi and Rodney Harrington.

ANSWER: Peyton Place

(10) The character of Allison MacKenzie was played by this actress, who left the show in 1966, and later starred in Rosemary’s Baby, and numerous Woody Allen films. She and Allen were also in a long-term relationship before a high profile breakup in 1992.

ANSWER: Mia Farrow

(10) This actor joined the cast of Peyton Place in 1965 as the twin brothers Vincent and Kenneth Markham. This actor switched to more comedic roles in the 1980’s with his portrayal of Frank Drebin of Police Squad.

ANSWER: Leslie Nielsen

2. Only a few American cities have hosted the Winter Olympics since it began in 1924. For 10 points each...

(10) This city in upstate New York is the only American city to have hosted twice. It hosted in 1932 and 1980, and is best known as the location of the “Miracle on Ice” victory by the USA hockey team.

ANSWER: Lake Placid, New York

(10) This California resort city near Lake Tahoe hosted in 1960 and was also the site of a USA hockey team victory over the Soviet Union.

ANSWER: Squaw Valley, California

(10) This is the largest American city to host the Winter Olympics, which it did in 2002, despite controversy over the selection process, including possible bribes.

ANSWER: Salt Lake City, Utah

3. For this bonus, you will need to know some “musical” conspiracy theories. For 10 points each...

(10) According to many accounts, this song by Phil Collins is about him witnessing a murder and using the song to call out the guilty party. Collins has claimed many times that this song is about his divorce.

ANSWER: “In the Air Tonight”

(10) According to one theory, this member of the Beatles was killed in a car accident in 1966, and a “double” has been pretending to be him ever since. Conspiracy lovers cite the fact that this man is barefoot on the Abbey Road album cover, along with “hidden messages” in later songs.

ANSWER: Paul McCartney (accept the “Paul is dead” theory; in English burials, the dead are shoeless)

(10) This funk band’s song “Love Rollercoaster” features a high-pitched scream during the instrumental breakdown, which has long been rumored to be a woman being killed during the recording process. The band claims that the scream is from keyboard player Billy Beck

ANSWER: The Ohio Players

4. This bonus is about the nascent career of Canadian actor Stephan James. For 10 points each...

(10) Like many other Canadian actors, James got his first big break on this Canadian TV show that is set in a namesake Toronto-area high school.

ANSWER: DeGrassi High School (accept “DeGrassi: The Next Generation”)

(10) James' breakthrough performance was as civil rights leader John Lewis in this 2014 film, about the famous voting rights march in the title Alabama city.

ANSWER: Selma

(10) In this 2017 TV show, James starred as a Department of Justice Attorney named Preston Terry who is investigating possible police corruption in the town of Gates Station, North Carolina.

ANSWER: Shots Fired

5. Memes have pointed out that the entire plot of this 1990 movie would likely never happen in today's Digital Age. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this film in which Kevin McCallister is left in the title situation when his family heads to the airport for a trip to Paris.

ANSWER: Home Alone

(10) This older brother of Kevin gets into a fight with him the night before the family leaves and seems the most unconcerned with the fact that Kevin is at home by himself.

ANSWER: Buzz McCallister

(10) While Kevin is at his house, Marv and Harry, who call themselves by this name, try to rob the house and are put through a series of ever harsher booby traps.

ANSWER: Wet Bandits (Marv turns on the faucets at every house they rob, so they have a signature)

6. This event began after a star player was knocked unconscious during a 1934 match. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this event, first played as a benefit for Toronto Maple Leafs winger Ace Bailey, that is held yearly in an NHL arena, featuring the best players in each league.

ANSWER: NHL All-Star Game

(10) Bailey was knocked unconscious by Eddie Shore, a player for this franchise, with black and gold uniforms, and a logo featuring a wheel.

ANSWER: Boston Bruins (accept either answer)

(10) The Bruins and Maple Leafs are part of this group, which comprised the entire National Hockey League from 1942-1967.

ANSWER: The Original Six

7. This TV show had just begun its second season when the actor playing the lead role died suddenly of heart issues. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this TV show that began in 2002 and ended in 2004 after three unsuccessful seasons and the death of its main actor, John Ritter.

ANSWER: 8 Simple Rules.. (accept "8 Simple Rules for Dating My Teenage Daughter" its original title)

(10) After Ritter's death, the actress who played his wife on the show, Katey Sagal, introduced the first three episodes of the new season. Sagal had starred on this previous TV show as Peg Bundy.

ANSWER: Married with Children

(10) This actress, who played the oldest daughter Bridget, later joined the cast of Big Bang Theory in 2007 as Penny, who lives across the hall Leonard and Sheldon.

ANSWER: Kaley Cuoco

8. Test your knowledge of some rappers from the "Dirty South," circa early-2000's. For 10 points each...

(10) This rapper's second album, 2003's Mississippi: The Album, featured his biggest hit, "Like a Pimp." He has branched out into minor roles in movies like Black Snake Moan, The Butler, and Ride Along.

ANSWER: David Banner

(10) This rapper's 2004 debut album Straight Outta Ca$hville featured the hit, "Let Me In" with 50 Cent.

Promotion of this album ceased after this rapper was arrested for allegedly stabbing a man at the 2004 VIBE Awards.

ANSWER: Young Buck (accept "David Darnell Jones")

(10) This Atlanta native recorded multiple albums with the East Side Boyz before going solo in the mid-2000's. His biggest hits were "Yeah" and "Turn Down for What."

ANSWER: Lil' Jon (accept "Jonathan Smith")

9. This show's pilot episode premiered in 1988 after Super Bowl XXII {22}. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this show, which ran 1988 to 1993, and starred Fred Savage as the adolescent Kevin Arnold, and Danica McKellar as his life-long love Winnie Cooper.

ANSWER: The Wonder Years

(10) That pilot episode saw Kevin and Winnie share their first kiss in Harpers Woods after this character died in Vietnam. Description acceptable.

ANSWER: Brian Cooper (prompt on "Cooper" alone; accept "Winnie's brother")

(10) The third protagonist of The Wonder Years was this character, who grew up with Kevin, and eventually attends Harvard. A popular conspiracy theory stated that the actor who played this role became Marilyn Manson.

ANSWER: Paul Pfeiffer (accept either answer; the actual actor, Josh Saviano, became a lawyer, not a goth metal artist!)

10. This movie was inspired by George Lucas' experiences as a teenager growing up in Modesto, California. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this 1973 film, starring Richard Dreyfuss and Ron Howard, about a group of recent high school graduates on their last night of summer vacation.

ANSWER: American Graffiti

(10) American Graffiti is notable for an early appearance by this actor who played Bob Falfa, a cowboy hat wearing street racer who wrecks his 1955 Chevy while racing Paul LeMat's character John Milner.

ANSWER: Harrison Ford

(10) George Lucas' first film was this one, set in a dystopian future where emotion and sexual desire have been outlawed. It starred Robert Duvall and Donald Pleasance, and ends with Duvall watching a setting sun.

ANSWER: THX-1138

11. For this bonus, you will answer some questions about individuals and bands who have never won a Grammy Award. For 10 points each...

(10) This hip-hop icon has been nominated an incredible 16 times, but has never won. His hit songs include "What's My Name," "Gin and Juice," and the short film and song, "Murder Was the Case."

ANSWER: Snoop Dogg (accept "Calvin Broadus")

(10) This group's groundbreaking album Raising Hell competed in the 1987 Grammys when no category for rap music existed. They lost Best R&B performance to Prince's song "Kiss."

ANSWER: Run-DMC

(10) This electronic music group has five Grammy nominations without a win. They will be inducted into the Rock n' Roll Hall of Fame in 2018, and they are known for such hits as "People Are People."

ANSWER: Depeche Mode

12. The 2017 U.S. Open was held at a golf course called Erin Hills, which Sports Illustrated claimed would cause players to "hit drivers all day long." For 10 points each...

(10) Erin Hills is located in this state, just 30 miles northwest of Milwaukee.

ANSWER: Wisconsin

(10) The 2017 Open was won by this young golfer who finished 16 under par and won by 4 shots over Brian Harman and Hideki Matsuyama.

ANSWER: Brooks Koepka

(10) Koepka's 16 under par tied for the lowest score ever in U.S. Open history with this golfer from Northern Ireland who is one of 4 golfers to win 3 majors by the age of 25.

ANSWER: Rory McIlroy

13. This singer was singing his hit song, "Lonely Teardrops," during a 1975 concert when he collapsed on stage due to a massive heart attack. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this artist, nicknamed "Mr. Excitement," who was in a coma for most of the next nine years until his 1984 death. Other recordings by this artist include "Your Love (Is Lifting Me Higher)," and "Reet Petite."

ANSWER: Jackie Wilson

(10) "Reet Petite" inspired this singer to write the 1972 song, "Jackie Wilson Said (I'm in Heaven When You Smile)" for his album St. Dominic's Preview. Other songs by this artist include "Moondance."

ANSWER: Van Morrison

(10) Both Wilson and Marvin Gaye's 1984 deaths inspired this group, led by Lionel Richie, to write "Nightshift," where there was "gonna be some sweet sounds/coming down."

ANSWER: The Commodores

14. This movie opens with the three protagonists stuck on the side of a Virginia highway when their car breaks down. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this 2016 movie about a group of African-American women mathematicians who work at NASA during the Space Race, and deal with racism and prejudice.

ANSWER: Hidden Figures

(10) In the film, the head of the Space Task Force, Al Harrison, is played by this actor, who starred in Dance With Wolves and Bull Durham.

ANSWER: Kevin Costner

(10) This singer and actress plays Mary Jackson, who becomes an engineer through night classes in the film. This actress has recorded 2 albums, The ArchAndroid and The Electric Lady.

ANSWER: Janelle Monae

15. Answer these questions about NFL quarterback Y.A. Tittle. For 10 points each...

(10) Tittle played college football at this SEC school in Baton Rouge that is nicknamed "Death Valley."

ANSWER: Louisiana State University (LSU)

(10) Tittle became the first pro football player featured on the cover of this weekly magazine that premiered in 1954.

ANSWER: Sports Illustrated

(10) Tittle led this NFL team to three consecutive NFL championship games in the pre-Super Bowl era. This team lost all three games between 1961 and 1963.

ANSWER: New York Giants

16. This show had a modern soundtrack despite its 16th century setting. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this CW show about Mary, Queen of Scots, her marriage to Francis I of France, and her ladies-in-waiting.

ANSWER: Reign

(10) Lola, one of Mary's ladies-in-waiting, is played by Anna Popplewell, who played Susan Pevensie in this 2005 movie. She reprised that role in two sequels that came out in 2008, and 2010, respectively.

ANSWER: The Chronicles of Narnia OR The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe (also accept "Prince Caspian" or "The Voyage of the Dawn Treader", the sequels)

(10) The character of Catherine de Medici is played by Megan Follows, who is best known for her role as this Canadian woman who is the protagonist of a series of novels by Lucy Maud Montgomery.

ANSWER: Anne Shirley (accept either answer; accept "Anne of Green Gables" or "Anne of Avonlea")

17. A sphinx from one of this man's films was discovered buried in California in November, 2017. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this director who became famous for his sweeping epics in the early days of film and now names the Golden Globes Achievement Award.

ANSWER: Cecil B. DeMille

(10) The sphinx that was found was from this 1923 film about Moses, the parting of the Red Sea, and the title Biblical documents. DeMille remade this same film with Charlton Heston in 1958.

ANSWER: The Ten Commandments

(10) DeMille made a famous acting appearance in this 1950 movie named for the title Hollywood location, which ends with Gloria Swanson stating, "I'm ready for my close-up, Mr. DeMille."

ANSWER: Sunset Boulevard

18. Some rock bands that struggle in America and Europe often have success in this country. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this country, which inspired a 1984 song by Alphaville, and made the American hair-metal group Mr. Big one of its top selling artists long after their popularity waned in the U.S.

ANSWER: Japan (accept "Big in Japan")

(10) This Illinois band was little known in the U.S. until it recorded a live album at the Budokan Arena in Tokyo, Japan featuring the hit song, "I Want You to Want Me."

ANSWER: Cheap Trick

(10) Deep Purple acknowledged their Japanese fan base on this 1973 song that describes the title individual as someone “who makes me see” and “is so good to me.”

ANSWER: (My)“Woman from Tokyo”

19. Arizona Senator John McCain once referred to this sport as “human cockfighting” in 1997. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this sport, which held its first official event in 1993 in Denver which was won by jiu-jitsu {JOO-JIT-SOO} expert Royce Gracie.

ANSWER: Ultimate Fighting Championship (UFC) (accept “Mixed martial arts” or “cagefighting”)

(10) This Irish MMA fighter began his UFC career in 2013, and won the Lightweight Championship in early 2017. He has taken a break from UFC and is scheduled to fight Floyd Mayweather in August, 2017.

ANSWER: Conor McGregor

(10) This MMA fighter is considered the best “pound-for-pound” boxer in UFC. He has defended his Flyweight title 10 times and is nicknamed “Mighty Mouse.”

ANSWER: Demetrious Johnson

20. This band’s 2014 album Songs of Innocence was released to all iTunes users for no cost, which caused controversy since it was automatically downloaded. For 10 points each...

(10) Name this Irish rock band, which also released a “sequel” of sorts when they released Songs of Experience in 2017.

ANSWER: U-2

(10) U-2’s best known album is this 1987 release, which won Album of the Year, and had such songs as “With or Without You,” and “I Still Haven’t Found What I’m Looking For.”

ANSWER: The Joshua Tree

(10) This man serves as the lead singer and spokesman for the group. This man was one of number of people cited as Time Magazine’s persons of the year in 2005.

ANSWER: Bono (accept “Bono Vox” or “Paul Hewson”)