

TU1

A character that went by this name used makeup to create a fake facial scar, despite the fact that he almost always wore a mask. That character was killed when his brother ignited the fuel tank of the boat that he was driving. This is part of the name of a wide receiver for the Detroit Lions who played college football at USC. For 10 points, give this name of an ancient Egyptian god who was at one time associated with Ra.

Answer: Amon

TU2

A character with this name led a team that was briefly an ally of the Hulk when he was separated from his counterpart, Bruce Banner, in a 2011 run written by Jason Aaron. Another character with this name who has been played by actors Tony Keibel and Julian McMahon. A man who was inspired by the previous character adopted a persona of this name and died in October of 2020. This is also the all-caps name of a 10 mana Hearthstone card that destroys all minions and draws a card for each. For 10 points, give this name that titles an iconic first person shooter franchise whose protagonist is often paired with a yellow dog from a different video game franchise.

Answer: Doom

TU3

This character was romantically involved with his business partner Max, who was later murdered as punishment for an act of disrespect. In this character's last scene, he steps out of a room seemingly unharmed, until it is revealed that half of his face is gone. That scene comes after a scene where this character confronts his long-time nemesis, who kills him using a suicide bomb in his wheelchair. For 10 points, name this drug kingpin who manipulates Walter White into cooking his methamphetamine.

Answer: Gus

TU4

This word that appears in the titles of many Magic the Gathering cards was formerly spelled with 5 letters until a language standard change in 2016. That change was implemented due to the release of a set with this word in the name. This is the name of a move that is used by a Super Smash Brothers character who "fights for his friends". A very similar move can be found in the moveset of another character that originates from the same franchise. For 10 points, name this word that refers to a fake dimension in Minecraft that can supposedly be reached by creating a portal out of glowstone and water.

Answer: Aether

TU5

The answer to this question is a combination of the answerlines to questions 1 and 3. This video game was represented in the 2020 Youtube Rewind Musical with a song that parodied the song that the Oompa-Loompas sing in Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory. A song titled for this video game "in real life" contains the lyric "I was playing in the game/but now I'm just a watcher". That song was written by Rebecca Zamolo. For 10 points, name this video game in which crewmates try to complete tasks on one of a variety of maps while the imposters hidden among them pick them off one by one.

Answer: Among Us